1) High School Internship Program coordinates year-round paid internships to high school seniors each year while also providing mentoring, job-training, life-skills workshops, and financial literacy instruction. The program requires the youth to commit for a year, stay on-track to graduate, and develop a post-high school plan; 2) The Health Alliance Program serves older youth who wish to pursue a nursing degree. The program provides free tuition, counseling, tutoring, and a guaranteed position upon graduation. Urban Alliance has ceased expansion of the program, and the final students will graduate in 2010; 3) Alumni Services tracks graduates of the High School Internship Program long-term to ensure a full return on the investment made in our year-round high school program. Launched in August 2007, Alumni Services was developed in response to the Double the Numbers report, and serves graduates through job placement assistance, financial aid assistance, résumé review, and paid internships that align more with their major courses of study; 4) Curriculum Outreach was developed to adapt Urban Alliance's year-long job-readiness and life-skills curriculum into modules that can be taught as stand-alone trainings to non-Urban Alliance interns in 2007.
